Duke of Edinburgh award super stars

This week Oak class have again been out around school seeing where they can help make it better.

They all our school look great worked so It is great see them working as a team.

want to and hard. to all well which aims to raise the profile of skills so that for children and young people know when and where they are developing these vital skills for life."

There are 5 skills such as 'teamwork' and 'communication'. As a school we are introducing this alongside our 'formal' curriculums to ensure all the children can become as independent as they can. Look out for more to come on this!

Christmas

We have planned activities over the last week of term to celebrate Christmas. We are planning to have a Christmas performance however this will be via zoom!

Dates:

11th December; Christmas Jumper day

14th December; High school zoom performance

15th December; Primary zoom performance

17th December; Christmas party day.

18th December; Last day.

All events will be very socially distanced and be within the children's own class. I will send out more information over the next week.

Best Wishes
